May I first of all thank all of you for your hard work during the summer – we have had fairs, concerts, cake stalls, walks and of course more recently the charity shop. This has so far been hugely successful – it has brought Bro Enlli closer together, it has given the church an excellent profile, the buzz that goes on there is fantastic and of course we are raising a lot of money for our various churches. Thanks to all who have donated and staffed the shop – we will have it until the end of October.

Yn ail cofiwch am wasanaeth croesawu Y Parchedig Janet Fletcher nos Iau y 6ed o Fedi am 6 o'r gloch a lluniaeth i ddilyn hynny – dewch a rhywbeth i'w rannu – diolch

Secondly, we will be welcoming and licensing the Rev'd Janet Fletcher as Associate Vicar in Bro Enlli. The service will take place in Aberdaron church at 6pm on the 6th of Sept and will be followed by a bring and share supper – it would be good if people from all our churches could support this – thanks.

Thirdly, the Llanbedrog (open to all churches) Bible Forum will be recommencing but with a few changes. Following consultation with some of you I'm going to suggest we return to afternoon meetings – tea at 1pm bible study at 2pm. May I suggest we meet to plan on Weds afternoon Sept 5th at 2pm and begin in earnest on Weds afternoon the 3rd of October – tea at 1pm and the forum at 2pm.

Yn olaf – taith gerdded Eglwys Llanbedrog (ond croeso i bawb) – cyfarfod yn neuadd yr Eglwys am 4-15 nos fercher Awst 29 a wedyn cerdded llwybr yr arfordir tu ol i Hafan y Mor a wedyn parti yn yr eglwys.

Finally – we will be having the Llanbedrog sponsored walk on Weds eve the 29th of August meeting in the church hall at 4-15 and then car share to Hafan y Mor (Butlins) to walk the coastal path behind Haven followed by a party in the church. There will be a half way stop and so you may want to bring a snack

Diolch + Thanks Andrew Carroll Jones

Friday 14 September 10am Children's Pilgrimage to St Peter's, Pwllheli

We are now looking forward to a schools' pilgrimage where 200+ local primary school children will be coming to learn about Mair Môrwyn y Môr, Our Lady of Pen Llŷn and to experience both sprinkling from the Holy Well and Benediction. We've had a special hymn written for us by Dafydd Pritchard which the children will sing. It's great to see this new addition to the spiritual life of our Ministry Area, aiding our schools' ministry and helping to reach out and engage with the next generation of Christians. If you are able to help with stewarding the children, please get in touch with Tad Huw.
